PAYMENT POLICY

To lose someone you love is a devastating human experience. It can be traumatic and may affect judgment. We believe in the importance of a meaningful recognition of the life that has been lived. We aim to provide the kind of service that meets the needs of each family.

It is also important to be realistic in respect to funeral expenditures. We do not want a family to spend more than should nor less than they would like. It is our desire to help families to make arrangements in keeping with their wishes and budget.

Provisions for payment must be discussed time of arrangements. Payment for all services, merchandise and cash advances are due in full by the day the services are rendered. To avoid any possibility of misunderstanding or embarrassment and for your convenience, please see below.

We accept the following methods of payments:

- Advance payments/ Pre Need Funeral arrangements.

If you have made Pre-Need arrangements, please inform your funeral director.

- Cash – Check – Debit Card

- Visa – MasterCard – Discover - American Express (3% fee for use credit cards)

- Insurance policies - (Assignment fee of 3% will be assessed from the total amount assigned)

The following criteria must be confirmed:

Policy is in force

Policy is assignable

Amount of policy

Verification of beneficiary/beneficiaries

Policy is not contestable

Original policy is preferred but not always required

*On policies that are more than the account, the insurance company will send the excess amount directly to the beneficiary

- Funeral Financing with LendingUSA - Fees apply

- Our Policy on Estate Payments:

Unfortunately, we are unable to accept insurance policies in which the Estate is beneficiary.

We do not accept payments for funeral expenses from the settlement of an estate.

All unpaid balances, after thirty (30) days from the date of service, are subject to accrue a finance charge of 1.5% per month (18.0% per year.)

$50.00 per day after 72 hours (3 days)

PAYMENT POLICY

To lose someone you love is a devastating human experience. It can be traumatic and may affect judgment. We believe in the importance of a meaningful recognition of the life that has been lived. We aim to provide the kind of service that meets the needs of each family.

It is also important to be realistic in respect to funeral expenditures. We do not want a family to spend more than they should nor less than they would like. It is our desire to help families to make arrangements in keeping with their wishes and budget.

Provisions for payment must be discussed at the time of arrangements. Payment for all services, merchandise and cash advances are due in full by the day the services are rendered. To avoid any possibility of misunderstanding or embarrassment and for your convenience, please see below.

We accept the following methods of payments:

- Advance payments/ Pre Need Funeral arrangements.

If you have made Pre-Need arrangements, please inform your funeral director.

- Cash – Check – Debit Card

- Visa – MasterCard – Discover - American Express (3% fee for credit cards)

- Insurance Policies: (Assignment fee of 3% will be assessed from the total amount assigned)

The following criteria must be confirmed:

Policy is in force

Policy is assignable

Amount of policy

Verification of beneficiary/beneficiaries

Policy is not contestable

Original policy is preferred but not always required

*On policies that are more than the account, the insurance company will send the excess amount directly to the beneficiary

- Funeral Financing with LendingUSA - Fees apply

- Our Policy on Estate Payment:

Unfortunately, we are unable to accept insurance policies in which the Estate is beneficiary.

We do not accept payments for funeral expenses from the settlement of an estate.

All unpaid balances, after thirty (30) days from the date of service, are subject to accrue a finance charge of 1.5% per month (18.0% per year.)
