GLOSSARY OF TYPES OF FUNERAL SERVICES

BURIAL

Complete Funeral Service

Family and friends are invited to visit the funeral home to pay their respects to the deceased and offer condolences to the family. Visitation provides time for sharing and remembrance and is followed by a funeral ceremony at a place of worship. Following the funeral ceremony, the deceased is transported to the cemetery where he/she is placed in their final resting place.

Graveside Service

Family and friends are invited to visit the funeral home to pay their respects to the deceased and offer condolences to the family. Visitation provides time for sharing and remembrance and is followed by a funeral ceremony at the cemetery.

Memorial Service

Family and friends are invited to a ceremony for sharing and remembrance of the deceased at a time either before or after the deceased has been placed in their final resting place. Free from the presence of a casket, a chapel or an alternative site can be arranged with photographs and personal items from the home.

CREMATION

Complete Funeral Service

Family and friends are invited to visit the funeral home to pay their respects to the deceased and offer condolences to the family. Visitation provides time for sharing and remembrance and is followed by a funeral ceremony at a place of worship or in our chapel. Following the funeral ceremony, the deceased is transported to the crematorium for cremation. Following the cremation, arrangements are made with the family for the return of cremated remains and/or a committal service is scheduled for the placement of the deceased in the final resting place.

Memorial Service

Family and friends are invited to a ceremony for sharing and remembrance of the deceased at a time either before or after the deceased has been placed in their final resting place. A chapel or an alternative site can be arranged with photographs and personal items from the home.

CARE OF THE DECEASED

TRANSPORTATION

- Removal and transfer to the funeral home $ 200

EMBALMING $ 700

Embalming is a chemical process that provides temporary preservation of the body and eliminates certain health hazards. Sanitary preparation of the deceased is part of the Embalming process. This procedure must be completed by a funeral professional licensed by the state.

Except in certain special cases, embalming is not required by law. Embalming may be Necessary, however, if you select certain funeral arrangements, such as a funeral with visitation. If you do not want embalming, you have the right to choose an arrangement that does not require you to pay for it, such as direct cremation or immediate burial.

CREMATION $ 250

The casket or cremation container is brought to a crematory where it is placed in a cremation chamber which is heated to an extremely high temperature. The intense heat reduces the casket or cremation container, as well as the remains, to small bone fragments which are then placed in a processor and reduced in size. The cremated remains are then placed in an urn or temporary container and returned to the family.

MERCHANDISE PRICE LIST

CASKETS

Range From $ 1,295 to $ 6,995

The purpose of the casket is to provide a final resting place for your loved one and to provide shelter from cemetery elements. We are pleased to make available a large selection of metal and wood caskets in a variety of exterior materials and interior finishes for you to choose from. Caskets can also be personalized to reflect hobbies or interests of your loved one. Our funeral director will be happy to explain the personalization options to you. A complete list will be provided at the funeral home.

CASKETS DESIGNED FOR CREMATION

Range From $ 950 to $ 3,500

The purpose of the cremation casket is to provide a dignified means of protection and shelter for your loved one. We make available several casket options whether your choice be funeral service with visitation or direct cremation. A complete price list will be provided at the funeral home. Our funeral director will also be pleased to discuss our rental casket program.

OUTER BURIAL CONTAINERS

Range From $ 850 to $ 12,050

The purpose of the outer burial container is to protect your loved one from cemetery maintenance equipment and environmental elements. Not all containers provide the same level of protection so we are pleased to offer several different types for you to choose from. Our funeral director will be happy to explain the options to you. A complete price list will be provided at the funeral home.

In most areas of the country, state, or local law does not require that you purchase a container to surround the casket in the grave. However, most cemeteries require that you have such a container so the grave will not sink in. Either a grave liner or burial vault will satisfy these requirements. Check your cemetery of choice concerning requirements

URNS

Range From $ 200 to $ 3,495

The purpose of the cremation urn is to provide a container for the cremated remains of your loved one. Urns may then be used to support your choice for final resting place, whether it be in the cemetery in a columbarium niche, ground burial, in an urn garden, or in your home. Whatever your choice, we are pleased to make available a large selection of types and styles for you to choose from. Urns can also be personalized through engraving or the use of brass plaques. Our funeral director will be happy to explain the personalization options to you. A complete list will be provided at the funeral home.

URN VAULTS

$ 350

The purpose of the urn vault is to protect your loved one from cemetery maintenance and environmental elements should you choose a ground burial. A complete price list will be provided at the funeral home.

OTHER MERCHANDISE

We are pleased to offer a number of other products to support the funeral service that you choose. These include stationery, flowers, clothing, mementos, permanent memorials, and other miscellaneous items. Our funeral director will be glad to explain these products to you.

OTHER FUNERAL COSTS

Arranging and conducting the funeral service may also involve a number of other people and businesses. Cost associated with these services fall into two categories- honorariums and third party business expenses (cash advances).

OTHER FUNERAL COSTS

HONORARIUMS

It is customary for the family to offer a token of their thanks to people who played a special role in the funeral ceremony. These are typically gratuitous in nature. For your convenience, we will provide you with thank you cards and envelopes so that you can include a personal note along with your stipend.

Typical Honorariums Include:

- Clergy
- Musicians – charge per musician
- Soloist – charge per soloist

OTHER FUNERAL COSTS

THIRD PARTY BUSINESS EXPENSES (CASH ADVANCES)

As a part of our service to you we will arrange for third party services that you choose to compliment your funeral service choice. For your convenience, we will disperse payment to these businesses provided that we receive payment in full for their services rendered.

These include, but are not limited to, the following:

A. CEMETERY / CREMATORY

There are usually three costs associated with the cemetery – opening and closing the grave, cemetery upkeep fund, and any unpaid balance for space (cemetery plot or mausoleum space) that had been purchased in advance on a payment plan. Costs associated with the crematory are for the cremation process. Payment in full is required for these prior to receiving the deceased for burial, cremation and interment / entombment. As part our service we include these charges on the statement of goods and services that will be explained to you following your selections.

- Opening and Closing the Grave $ 550
