Moore's Funeral Home & Crematory

A word about the unfamiliar process of making funeral arrangements.....

We recognize that most of us make funeral arrangements only once or twice during a lifetime, and that the procedure is normally unfamiliar and disquieting. It is our purpose to make this experience as comfortable as possible under the difficult conditions of the moment. We are conscious of the fact that the decisions you are making are important to you and your family, and will be for many years to come. We realize that your one time opportunity to make satisfactory and comforting decisions rest partly on our ability to properly inform you about your options, and we accept this responsibility as a sacred trust.

"We look to our past to find strength and foundation for our future"

Mr. Joe Moore established Moore's Funeral Home in 1908 with a philosophy of service to his friends in their time of need. Upon his death in 1972, his son, Frank Moore, continued to provide our community with that same tradition of a family-owed-and-operated business. William M. "Micky" Couey began working with Mr. Frank in 1974. Following Mr. Frank's death in 1982, Micky continued to provide the tradition and services throughout the community which had been laid forth by the Moore family, and his brother, Stewart joined him in 1983. We at Moore's Funeral Home feel that the tradition has been carried on over the years and will continue to strive to provide service excellence and a personal caring commitment to our community and families we serve.

"Our proudest and happiest achievements are those that bring comfort to the heart"

CREDIT POLICY

It is our purpose to provide quality service and merchandise to those families that we serve and to be fair in conducting all business transactions. The following credit guidelines have been established in order that there are no misunderstandings. If you or your family has a special need or situation, please let us know in advance and we will be glad to discuss alternative arrangements.

Upon completion of the arrangement process we will discuss the payment plans.

- Payment is expected before the funeral services are provided. Due to the fact that we are not able to finance funerals, the acceptable payment arrangements are: cash, check, money order, approved debit/credit card, insurance assignment, advanced pre-paid payment plan, bank approved financing with your local bank, or a combination of these methods. If a credit or debit card is used a 2% fee is added to the amount.
- Cash advances are due on the date of the contract. Cash advances are items provided by other parties that we pay on your behalf and are billed at the cost of those items. These amounts need to be paid when arrangement are made even if other payment plans have been agreed upon (ie. insurance assignment).
- Insurance. The insurance policy must be verified and assignable. If the insurance policy is not assignable (ie: State Retirement System of Georgia) we will need to receive a check from the beneficiary of the life insurance policy. We will hold that check until the insurance proceeds are received.
- It is understood that insurance may take longer than thirty (30) days to be received. There is no penalty for this delay. However, if the amount of the insurance is not enough to cover the full amount of the contract, the remaining balance still comes under the Net 30 terms and must be paid accordingly.
- Estates. We are unable to wait for the settlement of an estate to be paid. We respectfully request that a family member pay the funeral bill and be reimbursed from the estate. We will provide the necessary documentation for the family member to be reimbursed from the estate.
- Each past due account will begin accruing interest on the thirty-first (31st) day past the date of the contract. Interest will accrue at the rate of one percent (1% per month, twelve percent (12%) annually), on the unpaid balance. If you wish to avoid interest and/or know that you cannot make full payment within thirty (30) days, it is recommended that an alternative financing source such as a bank or credit union be considered so that a loan may be obtained and monthly payments can be made.

Again, if you have a special situation or a financial hardship, please discuss this with the funeral director so that any alternative arrangements may be considered. Remember, we are here to assist you in planning a memorial tribute for your loved one.
